

NEWS & UPDATES

28 January 2008

CSX Transportation has informed R. J. Corman Railroad Company that CSX's investigation of the fatal railroad crossing incident on Houston Antioch Road shows video confirmation that the crossing signals were working at the time of the incident. R. J. Corman Railroad Company reports that its inspections of the signals at that location had been up to date.

Released by:

Noel Rush
Vice President Strategic Planning and Development
R. J. Corman Railroad Group
Nicholasville, Kentucky
859-881-2473