Subject: R. J. Corman My Old Kentucky Dinner Train Departs from Lexington for two special runs for the public the week after Derby.

For the first time ever, My Old Kentucky Dinner Train will depart from Lexington and travel to our state capitol and back for two trips the week after The Kentucky Derby. These two VIP runs are open to the public for the first time; tickets are limited and are going to go fast. Our first trip is Tuesday May 10th at 6:00pm with the new Kentucky inspired spring menu. The second trip is an upscale wine and food pairing dinner at 6:00 on May 12th. Ticket reservations are available by calling My Old Kentucky Dinner Train at 866-801-3463.

The Dinner Train has recently employed Executive Chef Gil Logan to manage My Old Kentucky Dinner Train, which is based in Bardstown, Kentucky. Chef Gil has 30 years experience feeding celebrities, movie stars, sports stars, rock stars, Heads of State from Ireland, Scotland, and Latvia and three sitting US Presidents, plus the Queen of England. Chef Gil will bring this experience to create a one of a kind dining extravaganza for these Lexington based events. Chef Gil was one of the first chefs to promote the near exclusive use KY PROUD products to serve his guests at six consecutive Kentucky Derbys. He is using premium and unique foods found in our state to wow his guests, and the feedback is outstanding.

Press tours of the historic train and interviews with Chef Gil will be Tuesday, May 3rd, at RJ Corman Railroad Company Central Kentucky Lines, 133 Buchanan Street, Lexington KY between the hours of 10am- 2pm. There will also be a tasting with some of the new menu offerings. Please call to get specific interview time.
